Spraying Question Bothers Council

The Council who invested San Jose Scale and spraying the same, did not know what a bunch of trouble and worry it was producing for the town council, or he might not have done so.

The spraying of the trees and shrubs in the corporation limits was the one big topic of conversation at Tuesday night's council meeting. The spraying and inspection question has been a "thorn in the side" of local councils for years and it is getting no better.

All spraying, if the citizens so desire, is done by the Municipal spray wagon, and the citizens pay the cost for the work at exactly what it costs, but still there are complaints.

The Ontario Scale Law says the council must appoint an inspector, which they do, and pay half his wages, the Government the other half, but once he is appointed the town has no jurisdiction over him whatever. He goes to work and his orders come from the head Provincial Inspector and the town has nothing to say in the matter, whether they would like to or not.

Councillor Hillier thought it was a waste of money to pay men to run the spray wagon and also to pay Inspector Groce for looking after it, but as the matter rests with the Provincial Inspector the town is powerless to act.

Councillor Marsh gave notice that at the next meeting of the council he would introduce a traffic by-law for GRIMSBY.

Mr. G. E. Smith interviewed the Council, re the purchasing of a Brandford ton truck for the use of the fire department.

Mr. Henry Bull appeared before the council again for the seventh time with regards to the fixing up of the Main Street drain, which runs through his property on Doran Ave. The spring showers are here and as a consequence the drain overflows and damages Mr. Bull's property.

"I think some of us should go and see what can be done," Marsh.

"Councilors have been over this property several times, but nothing has ever been done. I have tried to get an amicable agreement, but have not succeeded," Mr. Bull.

At this point Mr. Bull produced a letter from a firm of lawyers, in which they claimed "That the town was maintaining a nuisance on his property, and have no right to." The lawyers asked permission to sue for unstated damages.

Mr. Irvine Hummell, asked to have the Maple trees in front of his house on Depot St. trimmed, so that a little sunlight might filter in.

Clerk Bromley stated that as Building Inspector, he had had several complaints with regards to the Cupola being built by the Metal Craft Co. him look into the matter.

The Cupola is dangerous, claimed the Council. Hillier claimed that two-thirds of the area in the East-end of Hamilton were caused by sparks from the cupolas in the factories.

Councillor Randall was of the opinion that something must be done to protect adjoining property.

There has been a branch of the Girl Guides of Ontario formed in GRIMSBY, and they asked the council for assistance.

The town has a new dump. All rubbish is now dumped in "Willow Hollow" on Clarke St.

All the dirt taken off the streets this spring will be spread over the old dump on Elizabeth St.

Marsh—Bourne—That the Clerk be instructed to send the names of Council and several other gentlemen to the Secretary of the "Win-the-War" Committee as delegates to their convention, carried.

Hillier—Marsh—That the Clerk be instructed to write to Metal Craft Co., asking them to submit plans for proposed cupola they intend building in connection with new moulding shop now being erected on their property, carried.

Marsh—Hillier—That Councillor Randall and Bourne be a committee to interview the young ladies forming a corps of Girl Guides, and also see about getting quarters for their meetings, carried.

IRRITATED & SORE?

There is something in Zam-Buk that makes this famous balm victorious over obstinate skin diseases. Mr. John L. Frenette, of Nigadoo, N.H., writes: "A rash appeared on my head and quickly spread until my head was entirely covered with sores. I was a shocking sight, and was suffering a great deal with the burning and irritation. I consulted a doctor, who told me I had eczema, and although he prescribed several medicines which I used, I did not seem to get any better. "Then I tried Zam-Buk, which I had heard highly recommended, and was soon delighted with the improvement in the sores. The burning and irritation got less by degrees, and then disappeared. The inflammation was drawn out, and before long the sores were entirely healed." Zam-Buk is the world's great herb skin cure, and is unequalled for ulcers, old sores, bad legs, boils, blood poisoning, ringworm, and piles, as well as cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto: Cdn. box, 3 for $1.25.

Welland Telegraph.—C. V. Holcombe and William Heiser of Humberstone township, last summer were associated in the cutting of the hay that grows on the land belonging to the Cement Company, near Port Colborne. They met in the Welland County Court this week to have adjusted a grievance each alleged to have against the other as a consequence to that hay-cutting association. The result has been that Holcombe has obtained a judgement against Heiser for $150, for share of the value of the hay—not the hay cut for the cement company, but hay cut on Heiser's field while they were engaged also on the cement job.

St. Catharines Standard.—Over a million dollars in customs revenue from the city of St. Catharines for last year is the record of the local office for this port, a new high water mark that sets other cities of a similar size also in the shade. For the fiscal year which ended March 31st the returns for St. Catharines totalled the magnificent amount of $1,154,706.75, an increase of $399,348.75 over the previous year when the returns reached $855,358.00. The revenue for March reached a total of $157,527.15, an increase of $78,424.29 for the same month last year when the returns were $79,102.86. Thus it will be seen that the returns for March of this year more than doubled that for March 1916.

Year 1914-13.....$334,677.23

The Customs year closes on March 31st and the record for the past year at Welland customs office shows not only a stupendous increase over the two previous years but also exceeds any year in the history of Welland's boom. The figures given above show the total collections for the years ending March 31, 1915, March 31, 1916 and March 31, 1917. The figures for 1916 and 1917 are preliminary and are subject to change. ## BILLY SUNDAY IS LUXURIOUS Finding a suitable place for Billy Sunday to live while he is saving New York is bothering his entertainment committee. It was a simple enough matter to build a mammoth tabernacle for him in Harlem, but if the committee assumed that a Harlem flat would suffice for his accommodations it reckoned without a proper appreciation of the requirements of modern civilization. The evangelist insists on a house of at least fifteen rooms and four baths.

The needs and ideals of religious leadership have changed since the primitive days of Christianity, and besides, "they didn't know everything down in Judea." Revivalism has been developed and organized and is now on a business basis, and an evangelist who carries secretaries, assistants, a housekeeper and a manager with him obviously needs accommodations to fit.

If the salvation of New York, depends on obtaining a house for Billy Sunday, by all means let it be found. Is a Fifth Avenue mansion too remote? If the mammoth of uprightness is to be made hit the trail, that might prove the best place of all.—New York World.

COUNTY COUNCILLORS INSPECT Q. & G. ROAD

The members of the County Council journeyed over the Q. & G. road Wednesday from one end and a half miles this side of Windsor to Queenston and found the highway in fairly good shape with the exception of a piece through the village of Beamsville and North GRIMSBY. Superintendent Robertson was authorized to lay crushed stone for the necessary repairs.

It was decided to send a deputation to Hamilton to attend the meeting of the Provincial Highway Commission, where representatives from Grimsby are going to try to have the Provincial Highway from Windsor to Toronto go through Grimsby, Lincoln and Welland County Councils have been asked by the Western County Council to give their support in writing that the Highway from Windsor to Toronto go through Hamilton and not touch Grimsby. The delegates from Lincoln County will be Warden Claus and Reeves Sutton and Garlett.

AMERICAN PARADE

St. Catharines, April 8.—The entrance of their country into the war was celebrated last night by citizens of the United States living in St. Catharines, by a torchlight and automobile parade through the principal streets of the city. There were quite a large number of people from across the border holding important positions here, and many men are engaged in munition factories. They gathered at 8.30 on the Market Square, and accompanied by the 19th Regiment, marched through Grimsby and the Stars and Stripes blowing in the breeze together.

In the Spring Is It a Cough?

Ontario Women's Advice.

Hamilton, Ont.—"I am a great believer in Dr. Pierce's medicine. I am speaking from the actual use of them and the great benefit I have derived therefrom. Shortly after my marriage I began to cough, and a very bad cough, and very thin and was going into a decline. They got Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and this medicine completely cured me."—Mrs. ADRIANA HUBBARD, 26 Cheever St., Kilmorie, Ont.
"When I was only eleven months old my mother procured 'Golden Medical Discovery' for me. I have taken it several times myself since, and about one year ago I gave it to my two children. They recovered very quickly with no bad results, after taking one bottle. I have recommended it to quite a number of ladies."—Mrs. W. J. BRANKIN, Kilmorie, Ont.

The best time to cure a cough is when it starts. Ordinarily, a few doses of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure a cough at the beginning. But even when the cough is deep-seated and the body is wasted by emaciation, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will in most cases effect a permanent cure. Get it today from any medicine dealer; it is a powerful lung purifier, as well as a cough and cold remedy, and it cures the cough and carries them out of the system.

Remember it is not a patent medicine for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper. It's a pure glyceric extract of roots, made without alcohol. Depend upon this grand remedy to give you the kind of blood that makes the skin clear and puts strength and energy into the entire body. You will not be disappointed. For free advice, write Dr. V. M. Invariably people wait until their teeth ache before going to a dentist. As a consequence their teeth have become badly decayed.

Whether or not you are suffering with your teeth it would pay you to call for a careful examination every three months for which we make no charge.

Such a rule would not only save you your dental bills but also your teeth would undoubtedly last for your lifetime.

Often severe pains caused the teeth to decay and it is impossible to save them. If such is your case do not fear to have an extract. We have made a specialty of extracting for 21 years. Our method of extracting is so gentle, so easy for the patient and with the use of chloroform, of which we have the exclusive right, for our painless extraction, we have wonderful success. Our patients hardly realize when their teeth are removed.

We do all branches of dentistry, employing specialists in each branch. We are prepared to do your dentistry at any time convenient for you.

We emphasize extracting because we know that extracting is the most drastic and we want you to know that we do it without hurting you. Our office occupies three floors and are wonderfully equipped. We aim to have them so comfortable and our patients so satisfied that instead of an ordeal we make it a pleasure to come to our offices.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition
Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful
Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, loss of appetite and disturbed stomach. It may produce headaches and sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on pain in the back, rheumatism, gout, and rheumatic pains. It is the chief cause of eczema — and keeps the whole system unhealthily by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure auto-intoxication or self-poisoning — as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

Use a box of for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CARE OF THE MARE AND FOAL

The most important thing about mares and foals to be practiced by breeders and groomers having charge of stud farms is a thorough observation of the physical condition of the mares and foals. Of course, this study should be taken up at the beginning of the breeding season, with a more than general knowledge of the characteristics and temperament of each individual mare, as each must be separately judged as to when she is in season or not as the breeding season proceeds and the trials proceed to determine whether or not she has conceived.

A mare should at the beginning of the breeding season be in a healthy condition and in at least fair flesh. If a mare has not shed her coat due to the carelessness of the season, her coat should have that glossy look which is good health only, and her general condition be such as to preclude anything but that of a thrifty condition. Here is where an intimate knowledge of each individual mare will be found to be indispensable.

Mares that have had perfectly normal parturition should be bred on the eighth or ninth day after foaling and tried on the fourteenth and eighteenth days, and if not accepting the services of the horse on either of these days be tried every third day until the twenty-seventh day. Unless the mare is a pester, this will be found an effective method as can be employed.

Barren mares, as to their physical condition, are governed by the same general rule as mares that are in foal, but before breeding should be examined by one competent to determine the causation of such failure to conceive. The causes are many and varied and the treatments for each should have the careful attention of one competent to administer to special treatment. Many stud grooms are competent to remedy the simpler ailments.

Taking it for granted that the mares, however, the first requirement are plenty of range; good pure water and such feed, both in quality and quantity, as is necessary to keep her in good flesh and health. Many mares will do well on grass only, while others need more or less grain. Nervous mares or pugnacious ones may require to be kept separate from others. Most nervous mares, however, do better with company and such company is generally of their own class. A nervous mare, with a foal by her side, will do well with other companions.

In the hot summer months shade is essential, and should this be lacking it might be well to keep them up during the heat of the day and turn them out late in the afternoon and night. In the fall they will probably require more feed, and their feed should be such as to give the best results — grain and roughage. The average horse's stomach will hold about twenty quarts, and it seems that it would be best to use such feeds as would best serve her interests.

Oats, corn and bran are generally conceded to be the best small grains, and timothy, clover, or a mixture of the two, or alfalfa, choice of the roughages. Oats undoubtedly is the best all-round grain. Oats contain a higher percentage of proteins, a high and fiber carbohydrates, and within a fraction as much fat as corn, which has the larger percentage of nitrogen free carbohydrates.

The proper feed for the average mare is one pound of oats to each normal one hundred pounds of weight of the horse. The amount of corn used should be one average ear to each one hundred pounds of the animal's weight, if used with oats, a less amount.

The use of the three grains as a mixture is the ideal food for brood stock. Corn will often quicker on account of the higher percentage of nitrogen free carbohydrates, and this in the cold winter months is a great thing to be desired, as flesh and fatenable the mare to withstand the rigors of the weather. The dent or softer quality of corn is more easily masticated, although no more nutritious than the flint variety.

Corn is always best fed on the cob, as the grains keep better and are not apt to mould. The advantage of feeding bran with the other grains is that it is a mild laxative on account of its phosphorus-binding protein. Several times a week bran may be fed with good effect to foaling or pregnant mares.

Timothy hay is the roughage generally most used. Although not particularly rich in digestible nutrients, it has the advantage of cleanliness and freedom from dust. Clover, or mixed clover and timothy, is the ideal roughage, if carefully put up and free from dust, and used several times a week together with bran, the mares will be receiving the most complete proteins phosphorus and lime, and consequently the most muscle and bone-building food that can be fed to the mare.

Alfalfa has many of the good points of clover and can be used to much advantage. As a diuretic it has marked advantages. Alfalfa hay will cause the voidance of over twice the amount of urine that an equal amount of timothy hay will.

Water is as essential as food. About one hundred pounds a day, or ten or twelve gallons, should be furnished to each mare. Nearly one-half the amount consumed passes out with the feces; about forty per cent. as urine and the balance through the lungs and skin.

The stabling should be a good, warm, roomy stall, with a wide door and kept clean and sanitary and well bedded, with plenty of ventilation and light. As the time approaches for the dropping of the foal, the stall should be kept perfectly clean. Many foal diseases come from uncleanness and previous urtrations or leakage of the umbilicus and prorephanta, commonly known as joint ill, septic arthritis or rheumatism, are the direct result of germs taken in at the time of foaling through the umbilical opening.

If the weather is mild enough for stalling out of doors on the clean turf, this is preferable. It will be found to be an advantage if foaled in the stall to always wash the stump of the cord with a five per cent. solution of carbolic acid or creolin.

The first feces for the foal, which it is essential that the foal gets this. This also shows that the colt can nurse properly and that the mare's udder is normal and the flow of milk unobstructed.

The first feces is called macoonum, and is the accumulation of foetal life, and if not taken care of by the foal will naturally have to be removed. This should be done carefully, so as not to cause injury to the rectum. If retained, the mass will become hard and cause colic, followed by inflammation of the bowels and their covering, which will produce very serious consequences, and frequently death to the foal. A retention of milk in the udder of the mare, or an increase of germ life, may cause a mastitis or inflammation which can usually be prevented, but if such a condition should arise hot fomentations will do much to correct it. Should the parturition not be normal the services of one capable of dealing with such conditions should be called for at once, as the longer the delay of relieving the mare, the more apt a fatal termination to the foal and correspondingly to the mare.

As the foal advances in age and the mare is fed grain, it is very beneficial to have the foal learn to eat oats with its dam, and when it has learned to thus eat grain, have a special box alongside of the feed box of the dam, and when the dam is fed, also put rolled oats in for the foal to its own box, a pint to start with, and increase as the foal shows its appreciation of the feed. No unseasoned feed be fed that the foal will overeat, but do not allow this feed to accumulate and ferment. Feed only such in the foal will clean up good, and keep its lungs always sweet and clean by thus teaching the foal to eat grain, when weaning — thus comes it will be easy for the foal and into the groom. It will be found that the weaning will not fret or worry about its dam and will continue to thrive, without losing flesh, as would follow if it has to be taught to eat grain at weaning. It will make it much easier also on the dam, as the foal will not require so much nourishment from her, and she will therefore have more strength to give to the foetus than in a state of incubation. At weaning time, it may be found advisable to milk the mare, but do this as few times as possible. A careful groom will be able to judge as to this by the state of the mare's udder. If she is a free milker, her udder should not be allowed to fester and start inflammation. During the process of weaning, mares and foals should be kept as far from each other as practicable, so that they will not hear each other's call, which only irritates the anxiety and makes weaning the harder.

After a few days they will both become reconciled to the separation, and the foal may then be turned out and the process of growing for maturity begun. — W. E. Cooper, V. R.

Keep hens this year

Eggs and poultry prices, the like of which have seldom been known, certainly make it worth anyone's while to start keeping hens. By doing so you have fresh eggs at the most trifling cost. At the same time you have the splendid satisfaction of knowing that you are doing something towards helping Britain, Canada and the Allied achieve victory this year.

Increased production of food helps not only to lower the high cost of living, but it helps to increase the urgently needed surplus of Canada's food for export. It saves money otherwise spent for eggs and poultry at high prices, and saves the labor of others whose effort is needed for more vital war work.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture will give every possible assistance by affording information about poultry keeping. Write for free bulletin which tells how to keep hens (address below).

"A vegetable garden for every home"

Nothing should be overlooked in this vital year of the war. The Department earnestly invites everyone to help increase production by growing vegetables. Even the smallest plot of ground, when properly cultivated, produces a surprising amount of vegetables. Experience is not essential.

On request the Department of Agriculture will send valuable literature, free of charge, giving complete directions for preparing soil, planting, cultivation, etc. A plan of a vegetable garden, indicating suitable crop to grow, best varieties and their arrangement in the garden, will be sent free to any address.

The extravagance of exposing good shoe leather to spring-time mud and slush is magnified by present shoe prices.

The discomfort of soggy, soaking feet leads straight to the deeper discomfort and lurking danger of colds—and coughs—and worse.
